Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon.

Clinical Experience

I am a fellowship trained Orthopaedic consultant with an MD degree in complex knee Surgery. This includes soft tissue knee surgery, joint reconstruction and knee joint replacement surgery and complex and revision knee surgery of all types the treatment of anterior knee pain and patella-femoral problems. I have extensive experience in academic practice, research, editing journals and have academic experience up to professorial level. I would bring additional academic skills including ongoing current research submissions and publications, my experience of supervision of research up to MD level, and my ongoing experience as principle reviewer and editorial board member of the second highest ranked orthopaedic journal in the world. I am also the senior and longest serving UK member of the international ACL Study Group of selected world leaders in knee reconstruction surgery.

I have core and mandatory NHS training together with additional time management, clinical governance, effective communication, team working and life support training.

Audit, Governance, Regulatory Positions, Management and Commercial Experience

I have been involved in clinical audits over many years. This ranges from an audit of my own clinical practice which now spans over more than 20 years. There have been various publications of the clinical outcomes of these audits. I have been involved in comparative audits of clinical practices, units and departments as a practitioner, as the MAC representative, unit director, NHS-HCC Orthopaedic Advisor. I have been appointed as an orthopaedic expert by the GMC in respect of fitness to practice hearings. I have been appointed as a second stage reviewer for the UK NHS Health Care Commission complaints orthopaedic expert. I am regularly asked to review practice complaint's as an expert both for and against the NHS and private hospitals. I have supervised NHS orthopaedic trainees both in their clinical work, surgery and research.

I have extensive experience of healthcare management both within the NHS, ISTC and private medical institutions. I was the lead in establishing the Clinical Governance structure of the Southampton NHSTC. I have served as a trustee for a medical research charity and am a reviewer for several medical funding bodies including Action Medical.

Journal Experience

In addition to my role on the Editorial Board of the Am J Sports Medicine and a principle reviewer, I am the a reviewer for two other international journals one in orthopaedics. In the past I have reviewed for various international journals including JAMA.. I am also an assessor for the major British Medical research funding charity Action Medical Research.

Scientific Reserch and Training

My first major international publication in the Journal of Bone and Joint Surgery in 1984 as a Senior House Officer. That paper was also presented to my first international meeting in Berlin at the inaugural meeting of the European Society of Knee Surgery 1984. Many further significant and practice changing papers followed. This culminated in my MD thesis being published as a supplement to the Acta Orthop Scan Journal in 1992. This was the first non Scandinavian thesis to be published in this way by the journal. I worked for five years as the lecturer in Orthopaedic Surgery at the University of Bristol. I was honoured by being awarded the chance to be the first UK trainee on the exchange travelling fellowship between the European Society for Sports Surgery, Knee Surgery and Arthroscopy and the American Orthopaedic Society for Sports Medicine. I was awarded an honorary membership of the AOSSM following this visit. I have also undertaken two trips as a visiting professor in knee surgery to Poland and Saudi Arabia. I was also the editor of a Text book "Controversies in Soft Tissue Knee Surgery" published by the Oxford University Press which was co-written with a Professor of Orthopaedics from the HSS New York. I have supervised and sponsored one of my research fellows to obtain an MD thesis on the mechanics of Patellar Tendonitis from Imperial College London.

Web based e-medicine

In 1992 I perceived the importance of e-medicine in disseminating information to patients and improving the provision of care. I established the patient information web site www.Orthopaedics.co.uk which to date continues as perhaps the largest UK independent health information web site. I have also on a commercial basis conceived of designed, implemented and supervised for many years a site on behalf of the largest UK healthcare company Smith and Nephew.
